Dear Helen's

I took a train from Rome yesterday to the lovely hill town of Assisi. Saw the famous frescoes by Giotto in the church dedicated to Saint Francis - Italy's favorite saint.
I also climbed (2 1/2 miles) up a steep hill to his hermitage & the spot where he was supposed to have preached to the birds (there was a 1000-year-old oak tree there on which those birds must have sat! Love Vicki
